The Northfield News has the following to say of Kenneth & Mills, hypnotists and mind readers, who are giving a week's entertainment at Northfield: "Mr. Kenneth is a quick reader and very readily found hidden articles. His best test was perhaps his leaving the hall blindfolded and finding a subject who had been locked in to a shop on the square and returning with him to the hall without having the blind removed. The humorous side of the entertainment was especially good. Company F is to be congratulated upon bringing a worthy entertainment to Northfield and will doubtless be sufficiently patronized to make the venture a financial success."
